Station Overview

On-Air Talent

MARTY AND SHANNON: 6:00 AM - 10:00 AM

Shannon grew up in the 80's, a child of hippies and music lovers. She was listening to the Beatles and Janis Joplin while her friends were listening to New Kids on the Block.

Marty has four loves in life: His three children, and racing! He's done everything from club DJ to late night disc jockey in his 30-year career. The past sixteen years working with Shannon have obviously been his best in the business (Shannon may be writing this bio).

MCKENZIE RAE: 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM

McKenzie hit the ground running in a major market with her very first job over thirty years ago. Writing, producing, programming, and being a top-rated personality, she's done it all. She likes all kinds of music but has a passion mostly for classic rock Led Zeppelin, Rush, Eric Clapton, and Van Halen are what she grew up with so they bring back fond memories.

BRYAN JESTER: 3:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Bryan first hit the air just as Disco Music and 8-Tracks were starting to die off. In his career, he's locked himself out of a live studio, ridden in a Chevy Chevette with George McGovern, and destroyed his hearing at SO MANY up close concerts--including AC/DC, The Kinks, The Stones, The Who and more!

STEVE GORMAN: 8:00 PM - 1:00 AM
Steve cut his rock-teeth in Bowling Green Kentucky and was a communications major at Western Kentucky University. That's where he became a founding member of the band that became The Black Crowes. Not only is Steve well-connected in the Classic Rock world, he's also an author, former Fox Sports Radio host, and an incredible storyteller.

CARL RUSSO: 1:00 AM - 6:00 AM

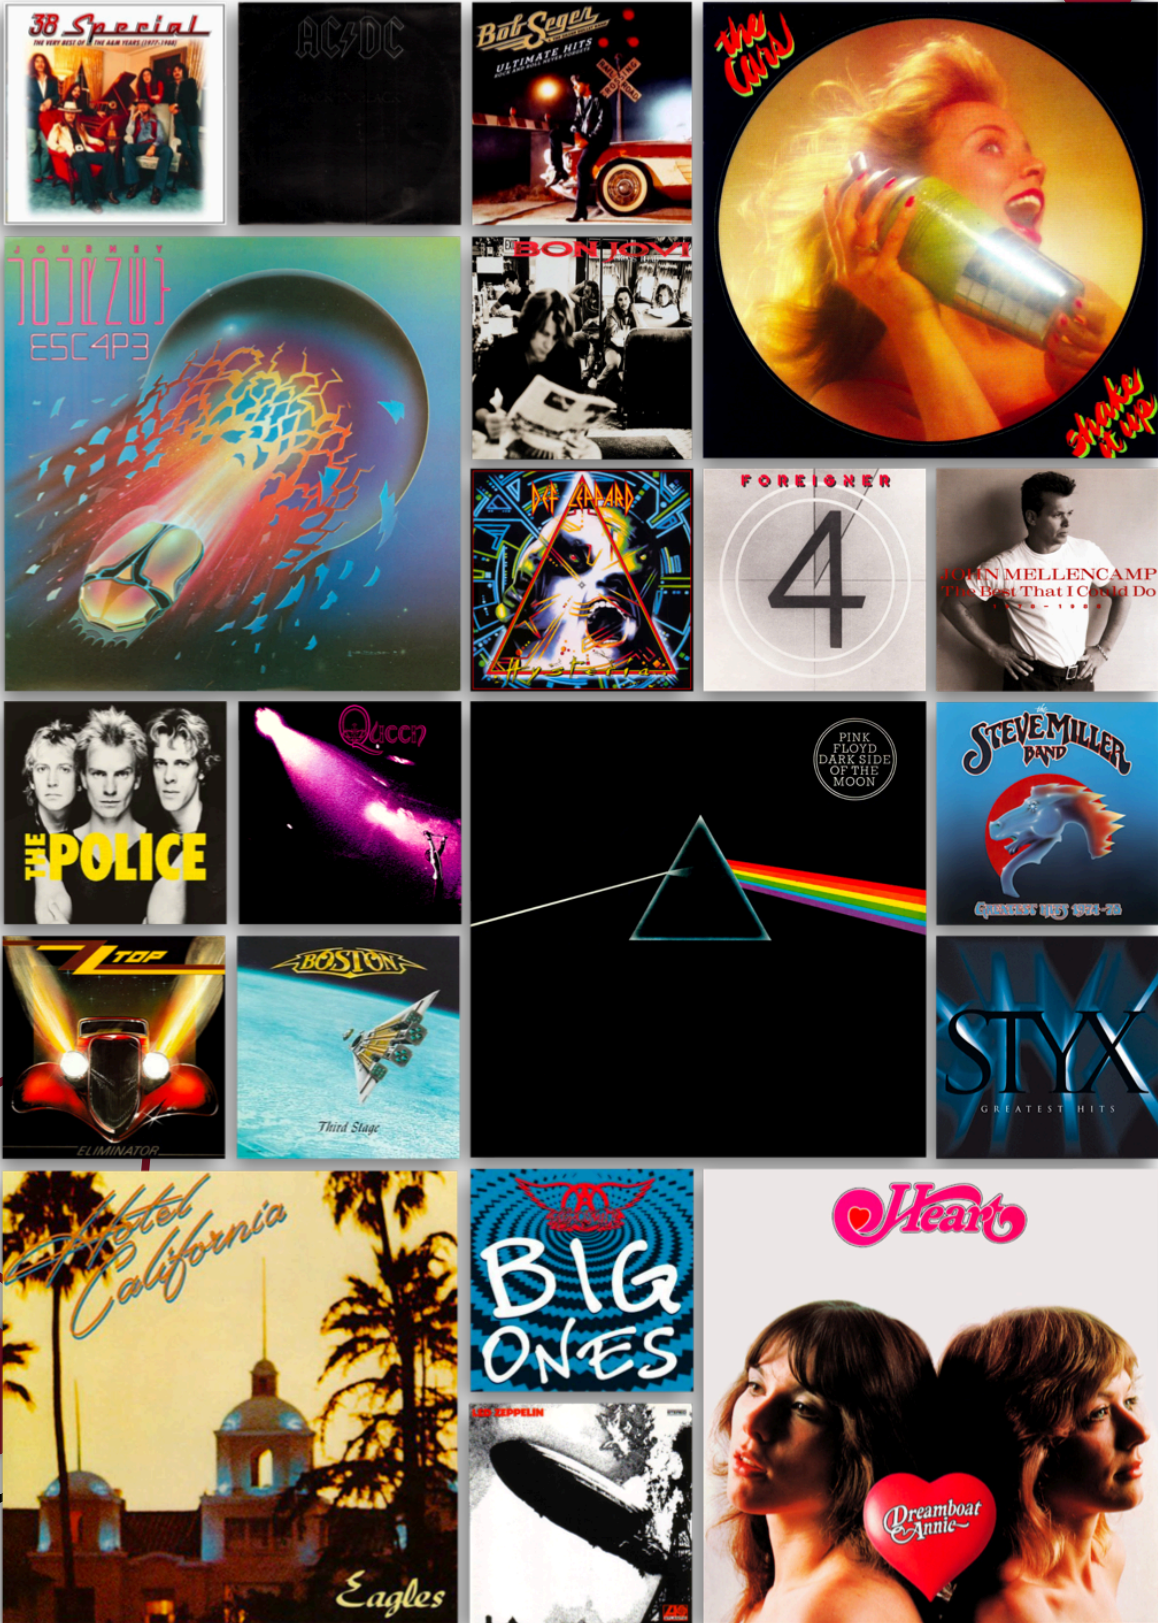

Carl grew up with plenty of street & strip drag racing, stock car racing, playing musical instruments, and having a good time. A major market radio personality, TV personality, and radio station owner, he did it all. His sense of civic duty was also a priority for Carl wherever he went. He served as a fireman in many cities where he's worked.
